

Fiddle

Gord Stobbe

Former host of "Up Home Tonight". Gord plays many styles and is an inspiring teacher. He has been at many fiddle workshops and fiddle camps all over Canada. He is the author of "Of Course You Can Play the Fiddle" series and wrote a number of "Canadian Old-Time Fiddle Hits Volumes."

Colin Buchart

Born and raised in the Shuswap/Thompson Okanagan where he has performed and instructed fiddle, Colin now makes his home in Vancouver, BC. While he grew up playing primarily Canadian Old-Time and Bluegrass fiddle music, his playing style is still heavily influenced by his Scottish and Irish roots.

Trish Clair

Trish Clair is a passionate educator specializing in fiddle and Suzuki violin/viola, and she maintains a large studio in Nanaimo BC. She is also active as a tune composer and arranger, creating exciting ensemble arrangements of traditional and contemporary fiddle tunes. Her favourite food is organic dark chocolate.

JJ Guy

This award winning fiddler, has a strong grassroots following which has made him one of the most popular fiddlers in western Canada. JJ has played with numerous groups and bands while passing on his skills to others at the many fiddle camps. His fun upbeat stage show, makes him a strong and often repeat performer at many festivals.

Instructors

Tahnis Cunningham

At 5 years old she started playing the violin and performing with her family as The Cunningham Family Band. Now, Tahnis lives in Regina, Saskatchewan where she teaches fiddle and guitar at "Music in the House." She performs in a duo with Ray Bell,

Ivonne Hernandez

Some people are born to play music. By the age of three, Ivonne Hernandez was playing violin by ear, everything from her mother's favourite Maritime reels to her father's Chilean folk music roots. She is a dynamic musician and has toured and taught all over North America, the

Mike Sanyshyn

One of Canada's finest fiddlers, Mike Sanyshyn is a master of many fiddle styles, specializing in Canadian Old Time, Country, Celtic, Bluegrass, Metis, Swing and European. He is a 3rd-generation fiddler, having begun playing fiddle at the age of 8 and is closing in on 30 years experience performing throughout Canada, Japan and

Guitar

Ray Bell

Ray lives in Regina where he teaches at Music in the House, a music school that he founded in 2002.

He is in high demand as a guitar instructor at fiddle camps all over western Canada and has toured extensively including tours of Canada, U.S. and the U.K performing at folk clubs, bluegrass and folk festivals.

Piano

Geoff Horrocks

Geoff Horrocks is recognized as one of the fiddle community's best pianists. He has performed on stages across Canada, and continues to be in demand as a clinician at camps and workshops nationwide. Geoff is co-creator of the Cross Canada Fiddle Tunes instructional books. He teaches fiddle, piano and guitar in Nanaimo BC. He will also be teaching guitar at this years camp!

Kimberley Holmes

What a piano player! She has traveled around the world with many of Canada's great fiddlers. Graham Townsend, Richard Wood, and most recently with Sheryl Fitzpatrick, to name a few. She also plays fiddle and is now taking up the banjo.

Information

We are pleased to have our 16th annual workshop in the Kootenays at Selkirk College. Whether you are a beginner or professional, this workshop has something to offer everyone. Classes are designed for learning and fun. Make sure you try and bring your recording device to keep track of all the tunes you will hear.

Each student can choose from several mini workshops which will also be held during the week. Some workshops include fiddle care and mandolin (bring your own).

The evenings feature concerts by instructors, dances, and jam sessions. On the final day there will be a "community concert" where students and instructors perform.

All students must provide their own instrument. Guitar students must bring a capo.

PLEASE ARRIVE BY MONDAY 8:30 AM
AT THE MAIN ENTRANCE.
