Fiddle

Gord Stobbe

Former host of "Up Home Tonight". Gord plays many styles and is an inspiring teacher. He has been at many fiddle workshops and fiddle camps all over Canada. He is the author of "Of Course You Can Play the Fiddle" series and wrote a number of "Canadian Old-Time Fiddle Hits Volumes."

Trish Clair-Peck

Trish Clair-Peck teaches fiddle, Suzuki violin and viola at Nanaimo Conservatory of Music. She is a regular instructor with the Kole Crook Fiddle Association in the Northwest Territories and has also taught at many other music camps. Trish is the founding director of the Vancouver Island Fiddle Camp.

Karrnel Sawitsky

Karrnel is from Saskatoon, Sask. He has taught at many fiddle camps throughout Saskatchewan. Karrnel has competed in many competitions and has received 10 invitations to the Canadian Grand Masters. His is experienced in many styles of fiddle music including Ukrainian, Irish, Bluegrass, and Old Time just to name a few.

JJ Guy

This award winning fiddler, has a strong grassroots following which has made him one of the most popular fiddlers in western Canada. JJ has played with numerous groups and bands while passing on his skills to others at the many fiddle camps. His fun upbeat stage show, makes him a strong and often repeat performer at many festivals.

Mark Sullivan

Mark Sullivan is a 3-time Canadian Grand Masters Fiddle Champion and 3-time Canadian Open Fiddle Champion. Mark is in high demand as an ambassador of the Canadian style, as well as a respected Irish, French-Canadian and Western Swing player.

Patti Lamoureux

Often referred to as one of the smoothest fiddle players in North America, Patti is known for her effortless delivery of some of the best traditional Canadian fiddle music of all time. A few of her credits include the Canadian Junior Champion, 3-time Champion of the famous Pembroke, ON competition, 6-time Manitoba Champion, 3-time Grand North American Champion and the Canadian Grand Masters in Ottawa, ON.

Laila Sabir

From her soulful and expressive airs, to her own feisty compositions, Laila Sabir's love of music is evident in her playing. In addition to her talent on fiddle, Laila is known for her rhythmic, tap-infused step-dance routines. She is the first fiddler in Western Canada to master the art of step-dancing and fiddling at the same time.

Guitar

Ray Bell

Ray Bell lives in Regina where he is a guitar instructor, performer, producer and composer. He has toured extensively including four tours of the U.K. performing at folk clubs, bluegrass and folk festivals and on B.B.C. radio. He is a studio musician and has performed on many C.D.'s and also is in demand as a guitar instructor at music camps throughout western Canada.

Piano

Geoff Horrocks

Geoff, truly a fiddler's best friend, is one of the best piano players that a fiddle player can ever hope to play with. Geoff is focusing all his efforts towards music and now makes a living as a full time musician. He teaches piano accompaniment, fiddle, and produces and records at his studio in Ottawa. A world-class piano player, Geoff knows the tradition and has performed with many of Canada's premier fiddle players.

Information

We are pleased to have our 9th annual workshop in the Kootenays at Selkirk College. Whether you are a beginner or professional, this workshop has something to offer everyone. Classes are designed for learning and fun. Bring your recording device to keep track of all the tunes you will hear.

Each student can choose from several mini workshops which will also be held during the week. Some workshops include fiddle care, mandolin (bring your own), and step dancing.

The evenings feature concerts by instructors, dances, and jam sessions. On the final day there will be a "community concert" where students and instructors perform.

All students must provide their own instrument.
