

Fiddle

Gord Stobbe

Master fiddler, and recently appointed to the "Order of Canada", Gord was also the recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Canadian Grand Masters Fiddling Association for Outstanding Contribution to Old Time Fiddling in Canada. Former host of "Up Home Tonight" He is an inspiring teacher and has been inducted as a Pioneer in Music into the Nova Scotia Country Music Hall of Fame and has also been awarded the ECMA Stompin' Tom Award for his long term contributions to music.

Colin Buchart

Born and raised in the Shuswap/Thompson Okanagan where he has performed and instructed fiddle, Colin now makes his home in Vancouver, BC. While he grew up playing primarily Canadian Old-Time and Bluegrass fiddle music, his playing style is still heavily influenced by his Scottish and Irish roots.

JJ Guy

This award-winning fiddler and dedicated instructor has a strong grassroots following which has made him one of the most popular fiddlers in western Canada. His fiddle albums are full of lively traditional and original fiddle music, and his latest venture, a collaboration with Gordon Stobbe entitled "Twin Fiddles", has garnered a WCMA nomination. As a result of his hard work and dedication, JJ won the People's Choice Award at the 2013 Canadian Grand Masters.

Instructors

Tahnis Cunningham

At 5 years old she started playing the violin and performing with her family as The Cunningham Family Band. Now, Tahnis lives in Regina, Saskatchewan where she teaches fiddle and guitar at "Music in the House." She performs in a duo with Ray Bell, and has become known for her energetic fiddle style as well as her warm and intimate vocals.

Ivonne Hernandez

Some people are born to play music. By the age of three, Ivonne Hernandez was playing violin by ear, everything from her mother's favourite Maritime reels to her father's Chilean folk music roots. She is a dynamic musician and has toured and taught all over North America, the Caribbean and Europe. Ivonne is a 2017 Juno Award Winner!

More instructors may be added at a later date.

Guitar

Ray Bell

Ray lives in Regina where he teaches at Music in the House, a music school that he founded in 2002.

He is in high demand as a guitar instructor at fiddle camps all over western Canada and has toured extensively including tours of Canada, U.S. and the U.K performing at folk clubs, bluegrass and folk festivals.

All students must provide their own instrument. Guitar students must bring a capo.

If it is your first time attending the camp please call Denise at 250-365-3209 or Sandra at 250-365-5514 if you are registering for guitar or piano.

Piano

Kimberley Holmes

What a piano player! She has traveled around the world with many of Canada's great fiddlers. Graham Townsend, Calvin Vollrath, Richard Wood, and most recently with Sheryl Fitzpatrick, to name a few. She also plays fiddle and is now taking up the banjo.

Information

We are pleased to have our 17th annual workshop in the Kootenays at Selkirk College. Whether you are a beginner or professional, this workshop has something to offer everyone. Classes are designed for learning and fun. At this camp guitar and piano instruction will focus on how to play back up for fiddlers.

Make sure you try and bring your recording device to keep track of all the tunes you will hear.

Each student can choose from several mini workshops which will also be held during the week. Some workshops include fiddle care and proper technique

The evenings feature concerts by instructors, dances, and jam sessions. On the final day there will be a "community concert" where students and instructors perform.
